PREMIERE IS COMING TO THE NORTHEAST! Save the Date – Premiere Philadelphia, September 2018

Orlando, FL, January 24, 2017– For the first time ever, Premiere Show Group will be hosting a show in the Northeast and are excited to announce that they will be coming directly to the City of Brotherly Love. Premiere Philadelphia will make its debut September 23 – 24, 2018 at the Pennsylvania Convention Center.

Premiere Show Group will be bringing everything the professional beauty industry has come to expect from their prize-winning shows; unbeatable education, spectacular Main Stage presentations by the industry’s leading artists. It would not be a Premiere show without a jaw-dropping exhibit floor with the manufacturers beauty professionals rave about.

Premiere Show Group currently hosts Premiere Orlando, “the largest beauty show in the US” according to Trade Show News Network and Premiere DAYSPA in Orlando, Florida each June. In addition, they bring Premiere Birmingham to the Southeast and Premiere Beauty Classic to Columbus, Ohio each fall. They are enthusiastic to add Philadelphia to their line-up.
